489.403 Liability for contributions.

1. A person's obligation to make a contribution to a limited liability company is not excused by the person's death, disability, termination, or other inability to perform personally.

2. If a person does not fulfill an obligation to make a contribution other than money, the person is obligated at the option of the limited liability company to contribute money equal to the value of the part of the contribution which has not been made.

3. The obligation of a person to make a contribution may be compromised only by the affirmative vote or consent of all the members. If a creditor of a limited liability company extends credit or otherwise acts in reliance on an obligation described in subsection 1 without knowledge or notice of a compromise under this subsection, the creditor may enforce the obligation.

4. An operating agreement may provide that the interest of any member who fails to make a contribution that the member is obligated to make is subject to specified penalties for, or specified consequences of, such failure. The penalty or consequence may take the form of reducing or eliminating the defaulting member's proportionate interest in a limited liability company, subordinating the member's interest to that of a nondefaulting member, a forced sale of the member's interest, forfeiture of the member's interest, the lending by other members of the amount necessary to meet the member's commitment, a fixing of the value of the member's interest by appraisal or by formula and redemption, or sale of the member's interest at such value or other penalty or consequence.

489.404 Sharing of and right to distributions before dissolution.

1. Any distribution made by a limited liability company before its dissolution and winding up must be in equal shares among members and persons dissociated as members, except to the extent necessary to comply with a transfer effective under section 489.502 and any charging order in effect under section 489.503.

2. A person has a right to a distribution before the dissolution and winding up of a limited liability company only if the limited liability company decides to make an interim distribution. A person's dissociation does not entitle the person to a distribution.

3. A person does not have a right to demand or receive a distribution from a limited liability company in any form other than money. Except as otherwise provided in section 489.707, subsection 4, a limited liability company may distribute an asset in kind only if each part of the asset is fungible with each other part and each person receives a percentage of the asset equal in value to the person's share of distributions.

4. If a member or transferee becomes entitled to receive a distribution, the member or transferee has the status of, and is entitled to all remedies available to, a creditor of the limited liability company with respect to the distribution. However, the company's obligation to make a distribution is subject to offset for any amount owed to the company by the member or a person dissociated as a member on whose account the distribution is made.

489.405 Limitations on distribution.

1. A limited liability company shall not make a distribution, including a distribution under section 489.707, if after the distribution any of the following applies:

a. The limited liability company would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the ordinary course of the company's activities and affairs.

b. The limited liability company's total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus the amount that would be needed, if the company were to be dissolved and wound up at the time of the distribution, to satisfy the preferential rights upon dissolution and winding up of members and transferees whose preferential rights are superior to the rights of persons receiving the distribution.

2. A limited liability company may base a determination that a distribution is not prohibited under subsection 1 on any of the following:

a. Financial statements prepared on the basis of accounting practices and principles that are reasonable in the circumstances.

b. A fair valuation or other method that is reasonable under the circumstances.

3. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 5, the effect of a distribution under subsection 1 is measured as follows:

a. In the case of a distribution as defined in section 489.102, subsection 5, paragraph “a”, as of the earlier of any of the following:

(1) The date money or other property is transferred or debt is incurred by the limited liability company.

(2) The date the person entitled to the distribution ceases to own the interest or right being acquired by the limited liability company in return for the distribution.

b. In the case of any other distribution of indebtedness, as of the date the indebtedness is distributed.

c. In all other cases any of the following:

(1) The date the distribution is authorized, if the payment occurs not later than one hundred twenty days after that date.

(2) The date the payment is made, if the payment occurs more than one hundred twenty days after the distribution is authorized.

4. A limited liability company’s indebtedness to a member or transferee incurred by reason of a distribution made in accordance with this section is at parity with the company’s indebtedness to its general, unsecured creditors, except to the extent subordinated by agreement.

5. A limited liability company’s indebtedness, including indebtedness issued as a distribution, is not a liability for purposes of subsection 1 if the terms of the indebtedness provide that payment of principal and interest is made only if and to the extent that payment of a distribution could then be made under this section. If the indebtedness is issued as a distribution, each payment of principal or interest is treated as a distribution, the effect of which is measured on the date the payment is made.

6. In measuring the effect of a distribution under section 489.707, the liabilities of a dissolved limited liability company do not include any claim that has been disposed of under section 489.704, 489.705, or 489.706.

489.406 Liability for improper distributions.

1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, if a member of a member-managed limited liability company or a manager of a manager-managed limited liability company consents to a distribution made in violation of section 489.405 and in consenting to the distribution fails to comply with section 489.409, the member or manager is personally liable to the company for the amount of the distribution which exceeds the amount that could have been distributed without the violation of section 489.405.

2. To the extent the operating agreement of a member-managed limited liability company expressly relieves a member of the authority and responsibility to consent to distributions and imposes that authority and responsibility on one or more other members, the liability stated in subsection 1 applies to the other members and not the member that the operating agreement relieves of the authority and responsibility.

3. A person that receives a distribution knowing that the distribution violated section 489.405 is personally liable to the limited liability company but only to the extent that the distribution received by the person exceeded the amount that could have been properly paid under section 489.405.

4. A person against which an action is commenced because the person is liable under subsection 1 may do all of the following:

a. Implead any other person that is liable under subsection 1 and seek to enforce a right of contribution from the person.

b. Implead any person that received a distribution in violation of subsection 3 and seek to enforce a right of contribution from the person in the amount the person received in violation of subsection 3.

5. An action under this section is barred unless commenced not later than two years after the distribution.

489.407 Management of limited liability company.

1. A limited liability company is a member-managed limited liability company unless the operating agreement does any of the following:

a. Expressly provides that any of the following apply:

(1) The limited liability company is or will be “manager-managed”.

(2) The limited liability company is or will be “managed by managers”.

(3) Management of the limited liability company is or will be “vested in managers”.

b. Includes words of similar import.

2. In a member-managed limited liability company, all of the following rules apply:

a. Except as expressly provided in this chapter, the management and conduct of the limited liability company are vested in the members.

b. Each member has equal rights in the management and conduct of the limited liability company’s activities and affairs.

c. A difference arising among members as to a matter in the ordinary course of the activities and affairs of the limited liability company may be decided by a majority of the members.

d. The affirmative vote or consent of all the members is required to do any of the following:

(1) Sell, lease, exchange, or otherwise dispose of all, or substantially all, of the limited liability company’s property, with or without good will, outside the ordinary course of the company’s activities.

(2) Undertake an act outside the ordinary course of the activities and affairs of the limited liability company.

(3) Approve a merger, interest exchange, conversion, or domestication under subchapter X.

(4) Amend the operating agreement.

3. In a manager-managed limited liability company, all of the following rules apply:

b. Each manager has equal rights in the management and conduct of the activities and affairs of the limited liability company.

c. The affirmative vote or consent of all members is required to do any of the following:

(1) Sell, lease, exchange, or otherwise dispose of all, or substantially all, of the limited liability company’s property, with or without goodwill, outside the ordinary course of the company’s activities.

(2) Undertake any other act outside the ordinary course of the limited liability company’s activities and affairs.

(3) Approve a merger, interest exchange, conversion, or domestication under subchapter X.

(4) Amend the operating agreement.

d. A manager may be chosen at any time by the affirmative vote or consent of a majority of the members and remains a manager until a successor has been chosen, unless the manager at an earlier time resigns, is removed, or dies, or, in the case of a manager that is not an individual, terminates. A manager may be removed at any time by the affirmative vote or consent of a majority of the members without notice or cause.

e. A person need not be a member to be a manager, but the dissociation of a member that is also a manager removes the person as a manager. If a person that is both a manager and a member ceases to be a manager, that cessation does not by itself dissociate the person as a member.

f. A person's ceasing to be a manager does not discharge any debt, obligation, or other liability to the limited liability company or members which the person incurred while a manager.

4. An action requiring the vote or consent of members under this chapter may be taken without a meeting, and a member may appoint a proxy or other agent to vote, consent, or otherwise act for the member by signing an appointing record, personally or by the member's agent.

5. The dissolution of a limited liability company does not affect the applicability of this section. However, a person that wrongfully causes dissolution of the company loses the right to participate in management as a member and a manager.

6. A limited liability company shall reimburse a member for an advance to the company beyond the amount of capital the member agreed to contribute.

7. A payment or advance made by a member which gives rise to a limited liability company obligation under subsection 6 or section 489.408, subsection 1, constitutes a loan to the company which accrues interest from the date of the payment or advance.

8. A member is not entitled to remuneration for services performed for a member-managed limited liability company, except for reasonable compensation for services rendered in winding up the activities of the company.

liability company or the manager of a manager-managed limited liability company for any payment made by the member or manager in the course of the member's or manager's activities on behalf of the company, if the member or manager complied with sections 489.405, 489.407, and 489.409 in making the payment.

2. A limited liability company shall indemnify and hold harmless a person with respect to any claim or demand against the person and any debt, obligation, or other liability incurred by the person by reason of the person's former or present capacity as a member or manager, if the claim, demand, debt, obligation, or other liability does not arise from the person's breach of section 489.405, 489.407, or 489.409.

3. In the ordinary course of its activities and affairs, a limited liability company may advance reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees and costs, incurred by a person in connection with a claim or demand against the person by reason of the person's former or present capacity as a member or manager, if the person promises to repay the company if the person ultimately is determined not to be entitled to be indemnified under subsection 2.

4. A limited liability company may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of a member or manager against liability asserted against or incurred by the member or manager in that capacity or arising from that status even if, under section 489.105, subsection 3, paragraph "g", the operating agreement could not eliminate or limit the person's liability to the company for the conduct giving rise to the liability.

6. All the members of a member-managed limited liability company or a manager-managed limited liability company may authorize or ratify, after full disclosure of all material facts, a specific act or transaction that otherwise would violate the duty of loyalty.

7. It is a defense to a claim under subsection 2, paragraph "b", and any comparable claim in equity or at common law that the transaction was fair to the limited liability company.

8. If, as permitted by subsection 6 or subsection 9, paragraph "f", or the operating agreement, a member enters into a transaction with the limited liability company which otherwise would be prohibited by subsection 2, paragraph "b", the member's rights and obligations arising from the transaction are the same as those of a person that is not a member.

9. In a manager-managed limited liability company, all of the following rules apply:

(1) Without demand, any information concerning the limited liability company’s activities, affairs, financial condition, and other circumstances which the company knows and is material to the proper exercise of the member’s rights and duties under the operating agreement or this chapter, except to the extent the company can establish that it reasonably believes the member already knows the information.

(2) On demand, any other information concerning the limited liability company’s activities, affairs, financial condition, and other circumstances, except to the extent the demand for the information demanded is unreasonable or otherwise improper under the circumstances.

d. Whenever this chapter or an operating agreement provides for a member to vote on or give or withhold consent to a matter, before the vote is cast or consent is given or withheld, the limited liability company shall, without demand, provide the member with all information that is known to the company and is material to the member's decision.

3. Subject to subsection 8, on ten days' demand made in a record received by a limited liability company, a person dissociated as a member may have access to the information to which the person was entitled while a member if all of the following apply:

1. Subject to section 489.503, subsection 6, for a transfer, in whole or in part, all of the following applies to a transferable interest:

- a. It is permissible.
- b. It does not by itself cause a person's dissociation as a member or a dissolution and winding up of the limited liability company's activities and affairs.

c. Subject to section 489.504, it does not entitle the transferee to do any of the following:

(1) Participate in the management or conduct of the limited liability company's activities and affairs.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection 3, have access to records or other information concerning the limited liability company's activities and affairs.

2. A transferee has the right to receive, in accordance with the transfer, distributions to which the transferor would otherwise be entitled.

3. In a dissolution and winding up of a limited liability company, a transferee is entitled to an account of the company's transactions only from the date of dissolution.

4. A transferable interest may be evidenced by a certificate of the interest issued by a limited liability company in a record, and, subject to this section, the interest represented by the certificate may be transferred by a transfer of the certificate.

5. A limited liability company need not give effect to a transferee's rights under this section until the company knows or has notice of the transfer.

6. A transfer of a transferable interest in violation of a restriction on transfer contained in the operating agreement is ineffective if the intended transferee has knowledge or notice of the restriction at the time of transfer.

7. Except as otherwise provided in section 489.602, subsection 5, paragraph "b", if a member transfers a transferable interest, the transferor retains the rights of a member other than the transferable interest transferred and retains all duties and obligations of a member.

8. If a member transfers a transferable interest to a person that becomes a member with respect to the transferred interest, the transferee is liable for the member's obligations under sections 489.403 and 489.406 known to the transferee when the transferee becomes a member.

1. On application by a judgment creditor of a member or transferee, a court may enter a charging order against the transferable interest of the judgment debtor for the unsatisfied amount of the judgment. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 6, a charging order constitutes a lien on a judgment debtor's transferable interest and requires the limited liability company to pay over to the person to which the charging order was issued any distribution that otherwise would be paid to the judgment debtor.

2. To the extent necessary to effectuate the collection of distributions pursuant to a charging order in effect under subsection 1, the court may do all of the following:

a. Appoint a receiver of the distributions subject to the charging order, with the power to make all inquiries the judgment debtor might have made.

b. Make all other orders necessary to give effect to the charging order.

3. Upon a showing that distributions under a charging order will not pay the judgment debt within a reasonable time, the court may foreclose the lien and order the sale of the transferable interest. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 6, the purchaser at the foreclosure sale obtains only the transferable interest, does not thereby become a member, and is subject to section 489.502.

4. At any time before foreclosure under subsection 3, the member or transferee whose transferable interest is subject to a charging order under subsection 1 may extinguish the charging order by satisfying the judgment and filing a certified copy of the satisfaction with the court that issued the charging order.

5. At any time before foreclosure under subsection 3, a limited liability company or one or more members whose transferable interests are not subject to the charging order may pay to the judgment creditor the full amount due under the judgment and thereby succeed to the rights of the judgment creditor, including the charging order.

6. If a court orders foreclosure of a charging order lien against the sole member of a limited liability company all of the following apply:

a. The court shall confirm the sale.

b. The purchaser at the sale obtains the member's entire interest, not only the member's transferable interest.

c. The purchaser thereby becomes a member.

d. The person whose interest was subject to the foreclosed charging order is dissociated as a member.

This subchapter does not modify any law applicable to the relationship between an individual practicing a profession and a person receiving professional services, including but not limited to any liability arising out of such practice or any law respecting privileged communications. This subchapter does not modify or affect the ethical standards or

All such standards shall apply to the members, managers, employees, and agents through whom a professional limited liability company practices any profession in this state, to the same extent that the standards apply to an individual practitioner.

A member or other person shall not make a voluntary assignment of an interest in a professional limited liability company to any person, except to the professional limited liability company or to an individual who is licensed to practice in this state a profession which the limited liability company is authorized to practice. The certificate of organization or operating agreement of the professional limited liability company may contain any additional provisions restricting the assignment of interests. Unless the certificate of organization or an operating agreement otherwise provides, a voluntary assignment requires the unanimous consent of the members.

489.1110 Convertible interests — rights and options.

A professional limited liability company shall not create or issue any interest convertible into an interest of the professional limited liability company. The provisions of this subchapter with respect to the issuance and transfer of interests apply to the creation, issuance, and transfer of any right or option entitling the holder to purchase from a professional limited liability company any interest of the professional limited liability company. A right or option shall not be transferable, whether voluntarily, involuntarily, by operation of law, or in any other manner. A member of a professional limited liability company shall not create or enter into a voting trust or any other agreement conferring upon any other person the right to vote or otherwise represent any interests of a professional limited liability company, and no such voting trust or agreement is valid or effective. Any proxy of a member of a professional limited liability company shall be an individual licensed to practice a profession in this state which the professional limited liability company is authorized to practice. Any provision in any proxy instrument denying the right of the member to revoke the proxy at any time or for any period of time is not valid or effective. This section does not otherwise limit the right of a member to vote by proxy, but the certificate of organization or operating agreement of the professional limited liability company may further limit or deny the right to vote by proxy.

489.1112 Required purchase by professional limited liability company of its own interests.

1. Notwithstanding any other statute or rule of law, a professional limited liability company shall purchase its own interests as provided in this section; and a member of a professional limited liability company and the member's executor, administrator, legal representative, and successors in interest, shall sell and transfer the interests held by them as provided in this section.

2. Upon the death of a member, the professional limited liability company shall immediately purchase all interests held by the deceased member.

3. In order to remain a member of a professional limited liability company, the member shall at all times be licensed to practice in this state a profession which the professional limited liability company is authorized to practice. When a member does not have or ceases to have this qualification, the professional limited liability company shall immediately purchase all interests held by that member.

4. When a person other than a member of record becomes entitled to have interests of a professional limited liability company transferred into that person's name or to exercise voting rights, except as a proxy, with respect to interests of the professional limited liability company, the professional limited liability company shall immediately purchase the interests. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, this section shall be applicable whether the event occurs as a result of appointment of a guardian or conservator for a member or the member's property, transfer of interests by operation of law, involuntary transfer of interests, judicial proceeding, execution, levy, bankruptcy proceeding, receivership proceeding, foreclosure or enforcement of a pledge or encumbrance, or any other situation or occurrence. However, this section does not apply to any voluntary transfer of interests as defined in this subchapter.

5. Interests purchased by a professional limited liability company under this section shall be transferred to the professional limited liability company as of the close of business on the date of the death or other event which requires purchase. The member and the member's executors, administrators, legal representatives, or successors in interest, shall promptly do all things which may be necessary or convenient to cause transfer to be made as of the transfer date. However, the interests shall promptly be transferred on the books and records of the professional limited liability company as of the transfer date, notwithstanding any delay in transferring or surrendering the interests or certificates representing the interests, and the transfer shall be valid and effective for all purposes as of the close of business on the transfer date. The purchase price for such interests shall be paid as provided in this subchapter, but the transfer of interests to the professional limited liability company as provided in this section shall not be delayed or affected by any delay or default in making payment.

6. a. Notwithstanding subsections 1 through 5, purchase by the professional limited liability company is not required upon the occurrence of any event other than death of a member, if the professional limited liability company is dissolved within sixty days after the occurrence of the event or voluntarily elects to no longer be a professional limited liability company but continue its existence as a limited liability company pursuant to section 489.1119 within sixty days after the occurrence of the event. The certificate of organization or operating agreement of the professional limited liability company may provide that purchase is not required upon the death of a member, if the professional limited liability company is dissolved within sixty days after the date of the member's death.

b. Notwithstanding subsections 1 through 5, purchase by the professional limited liability company is not required upon the death of a member if the professional limited liability company voluntarily elects to no longer be a professional limited liability company but continue its existence as a limited liability company pursuant to section 489.1119 within sixty days after death.

7. Unless otherwise provided in the certificate of organization or an operating agreement of the professional limited liability company or in an agreement among all members of the professional limited liability company, all of the following apply:

a. The purchase price for interests shall be its book value as of the end of the month immediately preceding the death or other event which requires purchase. Book value shall be determined from the books and records of the professional limited liability company in accordance with the regular method of accounting used by the professional limited liability company, uniformly and consistently applied. Adjustments to book value shall be made, if necessary, to take into account work in process and accounts receivable. A final determination of book value made in good faith by an independent certified public accountant or firm of certified public accountants employed by the professional limited liability company for the purpose shall be conclusive on all persons.

b. The purchase price shall be paid in cash as follows:

(1) Upon the death of a member, thirty percent of the purchase price shall be paid within ninety days after death, and the balance shall be paid in three equal annual installments on the first three anniversaries of the death.

(2) Upon the happening of any other event referred to in this section, one-tenth of the purchase price shall be paid within ninety days after the date of the event, and the balance shall be paid in three equal annual installments on the first three anniversaries of the date of the event.

c. Interest from the date of death or other event shall be payable annually on principal payment dates, at the rate of six percent per annum on the unpaid balance of the purchase price.

d. All persons who are members of the professional limited liability company on the date of death or other event, and their executors, administrators, and legal representatives, shall, to the extent the professional limited liability company fails to meet its obligations under this section, be jointly liable for the payment of the purchase price and interest in proportion to their percentage of ownership of the professional limited liability company's interests, disregarding interests of the deceased or withdrawing member.

e. The part of the purchase price remaining unpaid after the initial payment shall be evidenced by a negotiable promissory note, which shall be executed by the professional limited liability company and all members liable for payment. Any person liable on the note shall have the right to prepay the note in full or in part at any time.

f. If the person making any payment is not reasonably able to determine which of two or more persons is entitled to receive a payment, or if the payment is payable to a person who is unknown, or who is under disability and there is no person legally competent to receive the payment, or who cannot be found after the exercise of reasonable diligence by the person making the payment, it shall be deposited with the treasurer of state and shall be subject to the provisions of section 490.1440 with respect to funds deposited with the treasurer of state upon the voluntary or involuntary dissolution of a business corporation.

8. Notwithstanding the other provisions of this section, no part of the purchase price shall be required to be paid until the certificates, if any, representing the interests have been surrendered to the professional limited liability company.

9. Notwithstanding the other provisions of this section, payment of any part of the purchase price for interests of a deceased member shall not be required until the executor or administrator of the deceased member provides any indemnity, release, or other document from any taxing authority, which is reasonably necessary to protect the professional limited liability company against liability for estate, inheritance, and death taxes.

10. The certificate of organization or an operating agreement of the professional limited liability company or an agreement among all members of a professional limited liability company may provide for a different purchase price, a different method of determining the purchase price, a different interest rate or no interest, and other terms, conditions, and schedules of payment.

11. The certificate of organization or an operating agreement of the professional limited liability company or an agreement among all members of a professional limited liability company may provide for the optional or mandatory purchase of its own interests by the professional limited liability company in other situations, subject to any applicable law regarding such a purchase.

certificate of organization or an operating agreement of the professional limited liability company.

2. Notwithstanding subsection 1, upon the occurrence of any event that requires the professional limited liability company either to be dissolved or to elect to no longer be a professional limited liability company but continue its existence as a limited liability company, as provided in section 489.1119, all of the following apply:

a. The professional limited liability company ceases to practice the profession that the professional limited liability company is authorized to practice, as provided in section 489.1119.

Upon the death of the last remaining member of a professional limited liability company, or when the last remaining member is not licensed or ceases to be licensed to practice a profession in this state which the professional limited liability company is authorized to practice, or when any person other than the member of record becomes entitled to have all interests of the last remaining member of the professional limited liability company transferred into that person's name or to exercise voting rights, except as a proxy, with respect to such interests, the professional limited liability company shall not practice any profession. In that case, the professional limited liability company shall either be promptly dissolved or shall promptly elect to no longer be a professional limited liability company but continue its existence as a limited liability company as provided in section 489.1119.
